

Compostable plastic film

Cargill Dow's new NatureWorks™ PLA, a revolutionary polymer made from renewable resources such as corn and wheat, has been launched in Japan as an eco-friendly packaging option for Dunlop golf balls. The biodegradable polymer offers high-performance properties of polymers which are equivalent or better than competitive hydrocarbon-based products. Some of these key characteristics include high clarity, high gloss, UV stability and dead-fold properties.

Contact: Mr. Michael O'Brien, Cargill Dow LLC, the United States. Tel: +1 (952) 7420 523; E-mail: michael_o'brien@cargilldow.com; Website: www.cargill dow.com.

(Website: www.209.196.143.239)